

American Packaging Corporation Receives Two Flexible Packaging Achievement Awards

Chili, NY, March 11, 2020 – American Packaging Corporation (APC) has been awarded two Flexible Packaging Achievement awards for Crunch Pak’s Toy Story Lunch Kitz. Presented by the Flexible Packaging Association, the Flexible Packaging Achievement Awards showcase the industry’s latest innovations and advances that have changed packaging.

The Crunch Pak’s Toy Story Lunch Kitz took home two awards in the following categories: Highest Achievement Award and Technical Innovation (Gold award).

Lunch Kitz is a 4 oz. snack tray with individual compartments containing apple slices, artisan crackers, string cheese and salami. APC, in partnership with Crunch Pak, developed a special clear lidding that maintains freshness and nutritional value for the wide variety of food items all in one convenient tray pack. The lidding structure heat seals to the tray and then easily peels off when ready to consume.

About American Packaging Corporation

Founded in 1902, American Packaging Corporation is a recognized leader in the flexible packaging industry. Independently owned, APC is committed to innovation, sustainability and customer delight from a talented family of packaging professionals. Today, APC operates five Centers of Excellence in the United States and employs approximately 1,200 talented, motivated professionals, including nationwide sales reps and field technical support. For more information, please visit: americanpackaging.com.

Media contacts

American Packaging Corporation

Meghan Harding

585-537-4630

MSchottland@AmericanPackaging.com